Dear Students and Parents,

The LHMI website has been a great success! Most of the new 2020-2021 forms and communications that go out to everyone will be uploaded to the site shortly. But security (electronic and personal) is of paramount importance. The general site (for which each family has a unique password) includes the instructor biography and credentials, the studio calendar, various studio policies, and student awards, among other useful information. If you (parents and/or students) wish to add comments to those from previous years, you are invited to add updates on the form below.

Please return the internet policy slip below (by 1 September).

Thank you all for sharing your selves and your families with me on the wonderful music journey!

Sincerely,

Lorraine Hale Robinson
